

Edinburgh University Women's Association Football Club

Job Description – 3rd Team Assistant Coach

EUW AFC

Title

3rd Team Assistant Coach

Summary

EUW AFC truly prides itself in being one of the best university football clubs in Scotland. We have four football teams, two futsal teams and an entire recreational programme, which attracted around 150 members last year. Our football and futsal 1st teams play in the highest university leagues, but we also have a constant drive to excel throughout other the levels of the club.

We are looking for an Assistant Coach for our 3rd team to work with two existing coaches to deliver sessions for a dedicated group of players. This position will allow you to work with a team that recently won the Scottish 3A and have gained promotion to the Scottish 2A, being the first 3rd team ever to do so.

Enthusiasm, commitment and dedication to the club are essential in this role. We are looking for candidates that will encourage players to develop their skills and become more confident, both on the pitch and off. It is an ideal position to develop your football coaching, as well as an opportunity to help a well-established team thrive in a more competitive environment. More importantly, it is an opportunity to create a fun and inclusive atmosphere to support players in their football careers.

Location: Edinburgh, United Kingdom

Responsibilities

- Attend and help deliver regular training sessions on a twice-a week basis
- Be available for home and away matches on a Wednesday, with the opportunity to travel through Scotland to represent the club and the University
- Lead variable and engaging sessions that is appropriate for and challenges the team and its individual players
- Effectively communicate with players regarding training, matches and development
- Be open to feedback of players and work to support their needs
- Encourage and develop strong team cohesion
