

Edinburgh University Women's Association Football Club

Job Description – Head of Futsal

EUW AFC

Title

Head of Futsal and 1st Team Head Coach

Summary

EUW AFC truly prides itself in having the best university futsal teams in Scotland and the UK. Our 1st team competes in the BUCS Premier North and has previously been among the top 2 teams in the entire UK. Our 2nd team have finished in the top 2 of Scottish 1A for the past two years and were crowned league champions last year. The futsal programme is open to all abilities and we have seen an enormous growth in members over the past few years.

We are looking for a committed and enthusiastic Head of Futsal to coordinate and deliver training sessions, with a main focus on our 1st team. This is a position that will allow you to coach hard working, keen female players who compete in the Premier North league against other top universities in England.

We are looking for an individual who is enthusiastic, motivating and committed to fulfil this role. We are hoping to recruit somebody who has a good knowledge of futsal and can lead engaging training sessions as well as manage the team in exciting, fast-paced games throughout the year to build on the success achieved in previous years.

Location: Edinburgh, United Kingdom

Responsibilities

- Attend and lead regular training sessions on a twice-a week basis – must be available for morning training sessions on Mondays and Fridays
- Be available for round-robin fixtures on several Saturdays throughout the academic year, with the opportunity to travel to England to represent the club and the University
- Teach the team a playing style that works based on the combined strengths of individual players in the team
- Lead variable and engaging sessions focusing on continuous progression and development of the team
- Provide knowledge of tactics with regards to set-pieces and plays and implement these in training sessions and matches
